AT ANNUAL MEETING IN NASHVILLE, TN

MARTIN, TENN. (February 2014) – Hamilton-Ryker names their Corinth, Mississippi office as their 2013 Branch of the Year.

"We are so excited to accept the 2013 Branch of the Year award!" said Brittany Burcham, Branch Manager for Corinth. "We always work very hard to provide exceptional customer service to our clients, as well as great opportunities to our employees. The key to our success is the dedication that our staff members have displayed over the past year, along with our love of what we do. We enjoy partnering with our clients to help them find solutions for their staffing needs, while putting our associates on the right career path for their interests. This award is such an honor and every member of our team was a vital part of this achievement. I am very proud of my team and their accomplishment!"

"This is the second year in a row for the Corinth office to win Branch of the Year," said Company President Kelly McCreight. "They exemplify what we have always tried to deliver to all of our clients - quality personnel, real-time delivery, and excellent customer service".
