HAMILTON-RYKER ANNOUNCES 25th ANNIVERSARY FOR TERESA BARNER
MARTIN, TN

MARTIN, TENN. (February 2014) – The Hamilton-Ryker Company, one of the Southeast's largest human resource providers for over forty years, is pleased to announce the twenty-fifth anniversary of one of its most treasured resources: Teresa Barner.

Barner, Accounting Manager for Hamilton-Ryker's corporate office in Martin, Tennessee, has been employed by Hamilton-Ryker since 1989. She is an integral part of Hamilton-Ryker overseeing all accounting processes for the commercial branch offices and information technology offices. She is the foundation of the corporate office, supervising the Accounts Receivable, Accounts Payable, and Payroll Departments.

"Teresa's knowledge of the business activities and financial controls of the company is unparalleled. Her leadership, loyalty and commitment to excellence have added immeasurably to the growth of Hamilton-Ryker," says Crawford Gallimore, Chief Financial Officer of Hamilton-Ryker.

Born in Union City, Teresa is a long-time resident of Martin. She and husband of thirty-seven years, Donnie, have two sons, Josh and Cody, four grandchildren, Kanyon, Blasé, Emma and Cadi and another due in June. Teresa is very involved with her church, First Baptist in Martin.

In reflecting on her time with the company, Barner said "I've truly enjoyed my first 25 years at Hamilton-Ryker. I'm much older and wiser but love what I do and look forward to the next 25 years."
